Support programs operating in support of Ellsworth AFB
active duty members and their families;

Airman's Attic: The thrift store includes Airman's attic. For active duty Ellsworth AFB airmen, typically up to E-4. The loan program offers the ability to "check out" necessary household items or other needs from the inventory available in the thrift store. Just return it either to the B-One Yard or another USAF thrift store when you no longer need it. See the thrift store manager for instructions.

Up to E-4 Program: Ranks up to E-4 are allowed a $10.00 per month credit, if needed, to purchase items from the thrift area of the B-One Yard. See the thrift store management.

Boneyard Bucks: Funded by EOCSC and administrated by Airman and Family Readiness Center. Available to airmen presenting significant needs upon interview with AFR. Program allows for necessity of life, comfort of life items such as clothing and household necessities.

Babyland: Provided through cash and supply donations from the Ellsworth AFB community. Designed for ranks up to E-4 who need baby supplies between pay periods. Airmen can receive diapers, formula, baby food, and other misc items as needed from the Babyland inventory. See the thrift store management.

* These details are program guidelines only and can be reviewed and modified based on the individual needs of the families. Please see the B-One Yard management or Nancy Shrope at AFR for more information.
